

Alvin Tan (Singapore)

Baritone

Alvin Tan, graduate of The San Francisco Conservatory of Music, has sung the roles of Podestain in Le Docteur Miracle, Apollo in L'egisto, Mr John Brooke in Little Women, Papageno in Die Zauberflöte, Demetrius in A Midsummer Night's Dream, Le Dancaïro in Carmen, Discord in Les Arts Florissants, Mandarin in Turandot, and Belcore in L'elisir d'amore.

In concert, he performed The Wound-Dresser by John Adams, Fantasia on Christmas Carols by Benjamin Britten, Beethoven's Choral Fantasy Op. 80, St George in John Rutter's Reluctant Dragon, Faure's Requiem, Brahm's Requiem and Orff's Carmina Burana.

Alvin was awarded the Edwin Barlow Scholarship after winning first price in the National Association of Teachers voice competition. He was a recipient of the Shell Foundation Bursary, and an honorary award winner in NDTV International Vocal Competition in New York City. He won Best Singaporean Artist Award and Third Prize overall in the 2016 SLO-ASEAN Voice Competition.