

Steven Ang (Singapore)

Baritone

Singaporean Steven Ang graduated with a Bachelor Degree from Taiwan's Soochow University. He also studied at the London Bel Canto Festival with Bruce Ford among its faculty members.

As a singer and actor, his recent notable performances include The Merry Widow by Singapore Lyric Opera, Aida with Opera di Roma and Juan Pons (chorus, on tour in Taipei), Benoit and Alcindoro in La bohème at Soochow University, Gonzalo in Shakespeare's The Tempest by Method Productions, Sago Lane by dance company P7:1SMA and Foreign Bodies at the M1 Fringe Festival.

Steven is also a singing instructor at Madison Academy of Music and his own private studio. His students have won competitions and are regularly featured in professional theatre productions in Singapore.